Torah for Today

Learn Torah at a slow pace, spending time to truly understand the deeper meaning of this sacred text. No prior knowledge of Torah or Hebrew is required to participate. Newcomers to the class are always welcome.

Lessons from Our Traditions

Believe it or not, Jewish texts both ancient and modern give us guidance on how to raise children, deal with arguments with our spouses, how to handle conflicts, and even how to survive toxic people in our lives. Join THIS class discussion with Rabbi Shalhevet and you WILL believe it. And you will begin to live a happier and freer life if you choose to. It's all in your hands. Give it a try.

JOIN US EVERY SATURDAY MORNING

Saturday Morning Torah Study and Prayer at 9:00am

Join us as we study the Torah portion of the week. All are welcome to learn, discuss and question. No experience or knowledge necessary. We look forward to sharing ideas and opinions, different perspectives and thoughts to discover how Torah becomes part of our daily life. A wonderful way to learn more about the morning liturgy, meet new people, and share our common links of Torah and worship, prayer and song. A spirited, meaningful and informal Shabbat service for all of our members. Newcomers are always welcome (When Hebrew is used, it is translated or transliterated.)

From the Rabbi's Desk

Rabbi Jaimee Shalhevet

Do you remember the joy of summer break as a kid? The days were so long they lasted until evening. Lightning bugs lit up the night sky. And time just seemed to pass slower and more calmly. Some of us took family vacations. Some of us stayed home and took day trips to the local pool or playground. Some of us went to day camp or sleepaway camp. Being that I was blessed to have parents who were public school teachers, I did all of these activities during my childhood summers. Different summers had us doing different things. While I have amazing memories of all of these, my absolute favorite was sleepaway summer camp.

They call camp "the bubble." And it's for a very good reason. Inside camp is a different world. One where most people don't wear watches, nobody carries a phone, and we all simply move in the communal wave of time. Somehow, almost magically, there is huge growth in individualism as well. There are personal choices to be had, decisions to be made, and individual experiences too.

In this way, camp creates a communal space that is both individually nurturing and beautiful community building. It creates a safe haven from so many outside forces - the news, school, work, or social judgementalism, societal pressures, and so much more. Being at camp feels like a weight lifted off of your shoulders. It feels like a warm, safe, hug on a cold winter's night. It feels, well, like a bubble.

What makes this bubble possible?

I'm going to focus on Jewish Summer camps for the most part, but in reality, even those non-religious summer camps were often built on the Jewish values of early summer camps. Sleep away summer camping became a "Jewish" thing around the turn of the century (1893-1902 ish) because of antisemitism and overcrowded conditions in tenement housing on the Lower East Side. Jews were being turned away from many vacationing opportunities as well as being crowded into areas that were ripe with Polio and other diseases. The first two New York Jewish Summer camps, Camp Lehman and Surprise Lake Camp, were charity camps sponsored by Jewish organizations for lower income Jewish families and children. They held the purpose of both protecting our Jewish children from Polio and shielding them from antisemitism, with the added goal of helping them to assimilate into American society by teaching baseball and introducing them to "American" foods.

Nowadays, a Jewish summer camp still shields our children from antisemitism sadly. Where else can our Jewish children go and we can be sure that they will not see a swastika in a bathroom stall?

Where else can they belt out Oseh Shalom without anyone screaming that Israel is an apartheid, colonialist state? It's so so sad, but it's true.

Our summer camps, contrary to their original purpose, do not attempt to assimilate our children into American culture, but rather, changing with the time, they are safe spaces for them to explore their Judaism. They can grapple with their own concept of God and know that they will not be judged. They can enjoy Shabbat in their own way and feel fully refreshed for the week to come.

Our camps do this because they make a conscious effort to do so.

So, the important question for those of us who cannot spend our entire summers at camp is, how do we make this bubble for ourselves this summer?

And the answer is, we must make a conscious effort to do so.

We must seek out people with whom we are comfortable and know will not judge us and we must carefully not judge anyone else. We must make space for each other. We must take stock of what is really important and put our phones away in favor of face to face communication and connection.

While the school year will be over, our synagogue does not close its doors during the summer. God does not take summer vacation. If you need a place to experience the joy of Shabbat, we are here. If you need a place to know that there is no judgment. We are here. If you need a place to get away and recharge. We are here. So please, when you need a bubble, know that you have Camp North Shore Synagogue here to embrace you.

BEREAVEMENT GROUP...

83 Muttontown Eastwoods Rd, Syosset, NY 11791

North Shore Synagogue

North Shore Synagogue is pleased to offer the opportunity to participate in a support group for those experiencing grief and loss of a loved one.

When someone you love dies, a parent, spouse, partner, child, sibling, or cherished friend, it can be hard to understand complex thoughts and feelings. This group helps participants find a "new normal" without the presence of a loved one. Navigating the experience of grief with fellow mourners and a professional facilitator can be invaluable. This program is intended to accompany you on your own unique journey.

This 8 week program is facilitated by Beth Bucheister, MA, CPC (Certified Professional Coach.) Beth is trained to focus on life's unexpected challenges and is a graduate of Coaching for Transformation and The Bereavement Support Facilitator seminar at the Center for Loss and Life Transition.

Based on the best selling, "Understanding Your Grief: Ten Essential Touchstones," by Dr. Alan Wolfelt. Each participant will receive a copy of the book and journal.

Cantor's Notes

Cantor Steven Hevenstone

From May 18th through the 24th I had the pleasure of attending the Cantors Assembly Conference in Galloway, NJ at the Seaview Hotel and Resorts. It is always a great opportunity for me to be among my colleagues and friends making music together, joining and learning together in sessions. I can only describe it as an overall feeling of joy when 150 plus cantors join together in song, singing melodies old and new together. You know that feeling. You turn on your favorite station or song list, (mine is Jewish Rock Radio, an online Jewish Music station run by Rick Recht) Maybe it's a Billy Joel song, maybe Queen, or Hercules Smith, and suddenly you are transported to the past and a beautiful memory as if it happened yesterday. Music has the ability to create and form memories and the power to bring that memory into focus. "Music has a prominent role in the everyday life of many people. Whether it is for recreation, distraction or mood enhancement, a lot of people listen to music from early in the morning until late at night, especially since the invention of radio and recordings. Because of its near ubiquity, music has been identified as important in the construction of autobiographical memories and thus for making judgements about oneself and others." (Source: National Institute of Health)

For many of us that is what happens when we come to the Synagogue and hear a chanted prayer, or sing along with a congregational melody. The prayers and their melody may transport us to another time when we were sitting in Shul. You can walk into any Synagogue in the world, even Israel, and you will hear a familiar melody and can participate in the service and feel comfortable when you are there.

Jewish prayer has always been associated with music. We learn our Hebrew letters through song. Today you can probably recognize Debbie Friedman's (z"l) melody used to teach the Alef, Bet, and prior to that there were other melodies utilized to teach the Hebrew letters. It is also the same for those of us who are Hazzanim. I know that when I sing a traditional melody I am transported back to my Synagogue, Rodeph Shalom in Bridgeport, CT and to be able to listen to my Cantor, Y'Shaya Grama (z"l) sing the prayers again would be a gift. There are many times I am singing on the Bima and I hear his voice in my head, and feel his presence, as if I could turn around and he would be there next to me singing the prayers along with me in his powerful dramatic, operatic tenor voice. Those melodies that many of us hold on to are what bring us a sense of comfort. They bring us those warm memories of going to synagogue with our parents, our grandparents, our friends.

A great example of this strong sense of memory in the Synagogue is during the Kol Nidre. Everyone knows the melody. "The melody that stirs the heart of Ashkenazic Jews is of unknown origin, but is part of a body of music known as "MiSinai melodies" that emerged in Germany between the 11th and 15th centuries. "MiSinai" literally means 'from Sinai.' Of course, we know that none of these tunes came from anywhere in the Middle East, but the hold they have had on Ashkenazic Jews has made them as venerated as if the "came down from the mountain." (Source: Sounds of Kol Nidre).

As we look at the memories our music evokes, where does this leave room for new melodies? If we are open to musical possibilities, new music can create new memories and help us to potentially look at a prayer in a completely different way. What are your earliest musical memories? Or, if you're of a certain age, remember back 50 years ago to the melodies that began right here at North Shore. How have they changed? How are they the same? I'd love to have a discussion about it.

We should all look forward to listening to the music of the next 50 years and beyond. May our songs continue to blossom and grow, may our harmonies always be sweet, and may we continue to be together. L'Dor Vador – Generation to Generation, as our music continues to make beautiful understanding and memories together as a community.

A Message from the President

Ginny McNulty

As I step into the role of President of North Shore Synagogue on July 1st, I am filled with gratitude and excitement for the opportunity to serve this vibrant and welcoming community. Our synagogue has long been a place where tradition meets innovation, and spirituality is woven into the fabric of our daily lives. As we embark on a new fiscal year, I look forward to building upon this foundation, fostering deeper connections, and continuing to create a space where every member feels at home.

At North Shore Synagogue, community is at the heart of all we do. Whether it is through our engaging events, Mitzvah Mondays, senior brunches, life long learning programs, educational classes or NOSHTY youth group programs, we have something for everyone. Our inclusive worship services, that cater to all ages and backgrounds, strive to create an environment where everyone feels valued and connected. Working with our community exemplifies our commitment to standing together in the face of challenges and celebrating our shared heritage.

Spiritual growth is a lifelong journey, and at North Shore Synagogue, we are dedicated to supporting each individual's path. Through our diverse worship services, including traditional Erev Shabbat, Tot Shabbat, Musical Shabbat and our enriching Torah study sessions, provides opportunities for reflection, learning, and connection. Our clergy-led programs, such as "Torah for Today" and "Lessons from our Traditions," invite members to explore the depths of our faith and find meaning in our shared rituals.

Our synagogue offers a wide array of programs designed to engage members of all ages and interests. From educational classes and book clubs to social action initiatives and cultural events, there is something for everyone. This year, we look forward to continuing our tradition of excellence in programming, with events like our Thanksgiving Cook-a-Thon, Purim Carnival, and Second Night Seder, which not only bring joy, but also strengthen our sense of community and purpose.

As we enter this new chapter, I am inspired by the dedication and passion of our members, clergy and staff. Together, we will continue to build a synagogue that is a beacon of warmth, learning, and service. I invite each of you to join us in this journey, to participate in our programs, and to contribute your unique voice to our collective story. Let us move forward with a shared commitment to community, spirituality, and meaningful programming.

Ginny McNulty

A Message from Executive Director

Jacquelynn Golub

As we begin a new year, we turn inward to reflect on our past year and to make goals for the upcoming year. In that spirit, I invite you to listen to your "still small voice" and this year deepen your connection with North Shore Synagogue and get more involved.

As we look toward the year 5786, we recognize that synagogues are not just a place for worship. They are a house for the Jewish people and a space that continues to respond and help people reconnect in the ever-changing world.

The new year offers each of us a fresh opportunity to shape our lives, families, future generations and community in a meaningful way. North Shore Synagogue is here for you, offering support, direction, education, spirituality and community.

As we prepare for the High Holy Days, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, we think about a season of new beginnings and change. It is a season where we celebrate a new Jewish year, a season where our children start a new year of school, a time where our season changes, and a season of new infinite possibilities. Choose this year's "new beginning" and resolution to find one small way to get more involved in your synagogue community. Although change is not easy, I invite you to help me embrace change, and to incorporate a little more of North Shore Synagogue into your routine.

At North Shore Synagogue we have something for everyone.

- Friday Night Shabbat Services – Join us for an uplifting service and stay afterward to schmooze over coffee, tea, and dessert.
- Saturday Morning Torah Study and Prayer – Enjoy a bagel and coffee, dive into deep conversation about the weekly Torah portion, and stay for a brief prayer service.
- Programs, Classes, and Events – Participate in enriching offerings led by our clergy or guest speakers.
- Mitzvah Programs – Engage in meaningful acts of kindness such as making sandwiches for those in shelters, collecting items for food pantries, making blankets for infusion patients, and much more.

- Committees – Get involved in shaping synagogue life by joining one of our standing committees—Events, Lifelong Learning, Membership, Mitzvah, Social Justice—or any other area of interest.

At North Shore Synagogue we offer both in person and hybrid services, classes and programs. Many of us have become more comfortable participating from home, and tuning in from our kitchen table or couch to the various programs NSS has to offer. While virtual options have provided a valuable accessibility and convenience, nothing compares to the experience of being together in person and coming together as one community.

There is something truly special and incredibly rewarding about greeting someone face-to-face with a heartfelt "Shabbat Shalom," joining voices in communal prayer, enjoying a cup of coffee, or participating in a Mitzvah Project with shared purpose. This sense of connection is something we all yearn for and being alongside your NSS family of congregants creates a unique "feel good" feeling. I encourage you to give it a try. Share in the spiritual energy and you will experience the awe and wonder of being a part of a community.

I encourage you to consider making North Shore Synagogue a bigger part of your daily, weekly, or monthly life. I invite you to get more involved and brainstorm with me. What would you like to see in your synagogue community moving forward? How can we help you form a deeper connection? What do you or your family enjoy participating in? What would interest you to get more involved in?

One of my personal goals this year is to get more congregant involvement and I hope that together, with your help, we can make this a reality.

Come as you are and discover a community that embraces you, supports you, and grows with you.

Jacquelynn Golub

Did you know you could sponsor the oneg and flowers? Do you have a birthday, anniversary, wedding, or simcha coming up? Let us celebrate with you! Your contribution will help defray our cost.

Mazel Tov to our Bat Mitzvah

Hello my name is Dylan Blind. I am in 7th grade at Oyster Bay High School. I am becoming a Bat Mitzvah on September 6, 2025. My parents are Jenna, Jonathan, and Gina. I have 2 sisters, Scarlett and Bella. I have 5 grandparents and their names are Susan, Wendy, Steven, Dennis, and Louis.

I enjoy playing lacrosse with my team on the mid-field position, and with my dad at the beach. I also play volleyball and basketball. I love traveling and going on the boat with my family and friends. I now have my own boat that I learned how to drive. I play the cello and I have won multiple medals for it. I also love to sing. My favorite subject in school is History because it is interesting to learn all the fascinating things about the people of our world. My favorite movie is "Mamma Mia!"

My favorite Jewish food is Matzah Ball Soup. My favorite Jewish holiday is Rosh Hashanah, because it is the start of a new beginning. To become a Bat Mitzvah means that I am a mature, well-behaved, involved, athletic, and intelligent girl who is ready to achieve greatness in the future.

Nursery School News

Jacqueline Sanchez, Director

Summer is finally here, and the children couldn't be more excited! One of our favorite things about this season is enjoying the beautiful weather and spending extra time playing on the playground.

This time of year also brings magical moments in the classroom. We've been learning all about caterpillars and their incredible transformation into butterflies. The children were fascinated by the cocoon stage and loved discovering the process of metamorphosis. We even had the chance to observe tiny black baby ladybugs grow into beautiful adult ladybugs!

One of the most exciting days of the season is our Butterfly Release Day. The children eagerly gather in the playground to set their butterflies free. In the days that follow, it's not uncommon to see our students returning to the playground, searching the flowers and bushes, hoping to catch a glimpse of "their" butterflies stopping by to say hello.

Over the past few months, our Nursery School children have joyfully celebrated several meaningful holidays together.

We began with a special Passover Seder held in the gym. The Rabbi and Cantor shared the story of Passover, and the children joined in singing traditional songs and dancing. One of the highlights was tasting the symbolic foods on the Seder plate.

Next, we celebrated Yom Ha'atzmaut, Israel's Independence Day. The children created their own Israeli flags and participated in a festive parade through the school halls, ending in the Sanctuary.

Everyone wore blue to mark the occasion, adding to the spirit of unity and celebration. Most recently, we observed Shavuot by reading special stories and making themed crafts.

We celebrated our final Tot Shabbat of the school year on May 16th, and it was a truly special occasion. In honor of Teacher Appreciation Week, all of our amazing teachers joined us as we came together to say thank you for a wonderful year.

Tot Shabbat is always a meaningful time for our school community, and we love gathering with our families to sing, share stories, and welcome Shabbat.

Truck Day was a huge hit! Families joined us in the parking lot for a fun-filled morning exploring an exciting variety of trucks that came to visit. The children were thrilled to see and explore several types of vehicles—including fire trucks and different types of construction trucks. Of course the fan favorite was the ice cream truck! Community helpers from our town were on hand to introduce the children to their vehicles, answer questions, and even let them sit inside and honk the horns.

Our UPK children graduated in June and we couldn't be prouder of all they've accomplished this year. They've grown in so many ways and are more than ready to take the next big step into Kindergarten.

While we'll certainly miss them, we're excited to celebrate this important milestone and send them off with love and pride. Congratulations to our amazing graduates!

A Lookback at an amazing year of Mitzvahs

A recap of all the Mitzvahs that were done during the past year:

- donating food to the Rudman Food Pantry at the Mid-Island Y in August, 2024
- filling backpacks as part of a program called “Supplies for Success” for the school year in September
- the High Holiday food drive
- collecting non-food items for those victims of Hurricane Milton and Helene
- Our annual Thanksgiving morning Mitzvah and Food Drive. Over 100 volunteers from our congregation came together to prepare, assemble and deliver over 700 complete Thanksgiving meals to people in need and seniors located in Nassau and Suffolk counties.
- delivering non-perishable Thanksgiving food and blankets to people at the Huntington Train station
- delivering coats, blankets, and non-perishable food to the Gerald Ryan Outreach Center in Wyandanch
- donating money to the People’s Pantry of Oyster Bay for Thanksgiving
- making meals at the Ronald McDonald House for families staying there while their children are patients at Cohen’s Children Hospital
- celebrating Chanukah, Purim and Passover with the residents of the Orchard Estates Assisted Living Center in Woodbury
- our annual Mitzvah Day in January 2025, where 10 different stations were set up to participate in a variety of Mitzvot
- making Birthday Boxes for those in need
- Mitzvah Mondays where each time 1000 sandwiches are made
- filling the pantry at the Sid Jacobson JCC
- FriendsGiving Mitzvah – hosting some of our congregants over the age of 80 and serving them a turkey feast at lunchtime.

Visit to Orchard Estates

On Friday, April 11 volunteers from the Mitzvah Committee and the congregation (both youth and adult) as well as Rabbi Shalhevet and Cantor Hevenstone came together to celebrate Passover with the residents of Orchard Estates Assisted Living in Woodbury. Our volunteers helped the residents decorate tambourines for the holiday. Tambourines symbolize celebration and joy as Miriam (sister of Moses) lead the women joyfully celebrating the liberation from oppression and the miracle of the Exodus from Egypt. Cantor Hevenstone led our volunteers and the residents in singing favorite Passover songs. It was a wonderful Mitzvah as the residents all enjoyed celebrating the upcoming Passover holiday.

Thank you to:

After many years of being co-chair of the Mitzvah Committee, Ilene Zelniker will be stepping down but will stay on as a member of the Committee. Thank you, Ilene, for all of your years of service with planning, organizing and executing many worthwhile Mitzvahs. All your hard work was greatly appreciated! We look forward to your continuing help and being an active member of the Committee.

Marcia Kimbarow has been a truly outstanding member of the Mitzvah Committee for many years. She organized and participated in countless Mitzvahs with boundless energy and enthusiasm and has been an incredible committee member and team player in every respect. She and her husband Alan are moving to Florida in June and we want to wish them all the best in their new home and life in the Sunshine State!! They will be greatly missed at North Shore Synagogue and some lucky congregation in Florida will be the beneficiary of their great commitment to tikkun olam!!

HAVE A GREAT SUMMER!!!!

NSS Helped to Fill the Pantry

In March, the Mitzvah Committee collected food donated by our congregants to help “fill the pantry” at the Sid Jacobson JCC in Roslyn. This pantry is also known as the Community Needs Bank. It is open to all in need. Many thanks to Marcia Kimbarow for delivering the food to the JCC.

Mitzvah Mondays

On both April 7th and May 5th from 6:30 to 7:30 PM (the first Monday of the month), congregants of all ages gathered in the Youth Lounge to make and assemble 1000 American cheese sandwiches. The enthusiasm from all of the volunteers helping to do this important Mitzvah could be felt throughout the room! Many thanks to Marcia Kimbarow and Julie Kessler for helping to set up these mitzvahs. These sandwiches were picked up by Life’s Angels; a 501c non-profit corporation created to help make a difference in the lives of those less fortunate. One half of the sandwiches were delivered to the Mercy Soup Kitchen Food Bank in Wyandanch and the other half to a homeless shelter in Queens.

Thank you to Wonder Bread and All Round Foods, our congregants Glen Wolther and Donna Rosen, for donating the bread for this Mitzvah. Thank you to YOU, all of our families that have participated in this new initiative, which began February 2025. We look forward to continuing these Mitzvah programs in the fall.

Interested in Participating?

Interested in participating in our Mitzvah Committee and helping with our many mitzvahs? Please contact the Mitzvah Committee through our Main Office.

Donations to our Mitzvah Fund to celebrate or commemorate a special event in your life or to honor someone’s memory is always appreciated and helps support the mitzvah program here at North Shore.

LifeLong Learning Committee

Susan Kopech Committee Chair

The Lifelong Learning Committee is wrapping up an exciting year of multiple programs geared to all ages.

–May 4, offered a screening of “Israel Swings for Gold” (rated 6/7/10 on IMDB), the uplifting, funny and informative documentary about the first Israeli baseball team to make it to, and first ever to participate in a team sport in, the Olympics. A Q&A with the team’s catcher, Tal Erel, and one of the team’s pitcher’s, Alex Katz, followed. Attendees couldn’t stop asking these players questions!!! An athletic clinic with NSS Religious School kids was conducted by Tal and Alex. The students LOVED it!!! Bagels, schmeer and light snacks were enjoyed by all. The event was co-hosted by the Lifelong Learning Committee and Brotherhood.

–May 7, local Plainview author, Brad Kolodny, who wowed us last year with his discussion of his first book, The Jews of Long Island: 1705-1918, was on hand to discuss his second book, Seeking Sanctuary. A robust Q&A followed, and lots of “Jewish geography” questions ensued.

–May 18, saw the third installment of North Shore Synagogue’s newly launched Book Club, showcasing local Long Island author, Meryl Ain. Meryl discussed her book, The Shadows We Carry, with a very engaged group. Breakfast nosh was enjoyed by all.

–June 11, local music maven, Ned Dorman, swept us all off to enjoy “Sounds of Music” and teach us all about “The Golden Age of, Broadway”. Much singing and enjoyment followed, buoyed by a delicious, light dinner.

–June 17, a lens on rising antisemitism on college campuses came into sharp focus with our screening of the film, October 8, directed by Wendy Sachs, newly available privately after a recent run in local movie theaters. The film offers a searing look at that eruption, that started the day after Hamas’ heinous attack on Israel on October 7th. A taped discussion of the making of the film with the director followed the screening. Movie nosh was served.

The Lifelong Learning Committee is already hard at work trying to top our programming for 2025-2026. We’re already planning programs and events to engage every age group in our Kehilla Kadosh. That’s why it’s called “lifelong” learning!!!

ALL ARE WELCOME! Please join us for all or any of these events! Watch our weekly “Happenings” for more information on other exciting opportunities to schmooze and learn b’yachad, together!!!

Amazing to be able to celebrate our founding member Ira Friedman just a few weeks ago for his 100th birthday. He passed away recently and we were honored to be able to see him smile and enjoy his family and friends. May his memory forever be a blessing.

Get Involved By Volunteering

The North Shore Synagogue Board of Trustees is seeking congregant volunteers to join the following committees:

Brotherhood and Sisterhood

North Shore Synagogue Sisterhood and Brotherhood offer many opportunities for socializing, camaraderie, Tikkun Olam and so much more. For a nominal cost, which includes a paid-up membership dinner, it's the best deal in town! Contact the synagogue office today at 516.921.2282.

Sisterhood Scoop

Janet Cohen, Carol Fisher, Donna Gelber, Sisterhood Co-Presidents

As we wrap up the 2024–2025 year at North Shore Synagogue, we extend our heartfelt thanks to our incredible board and dedicated members. Your continued support and enthusiasm are deeply appreciated!

This past month, we hosted our signature event, the Women's Seder—a truly special evening. Rabbi Shalhevet, joined by congregant Debbie Shapiro on drums and Mindy on piano, led a meaningful and spiritual Seder for a large and engaged group of women. A big thank you to The Standard of North Shore for the delicious food that helped make the night so memorable.

On May 1, we gathered for a sold-out cooking class at What's Cooking in Oyster Bay, with a waiting list to boot! Attendees prepared and enjoyed a Mediterranean feast. The event was a hit—we're already looking forward to hosting a sushi night next spring!

Throughout the year, we've enjoyed a variety of well-attended programs including chair yoga, bracelet making, a Sip & Shop at Madison Niche, and Rosh Chodesh gatherings. Looking ahead, we're excited to expand our offerings with new ideas like a honey tasting night and Scrubzbody Girls' night, while bringing back favorites like Mezuzah glass making.

We're eager to begin planning for 2025–2026 and welcome your suggestions for future events. Stay tuned for updates via email and the Shalom! Wishing everyone a happy, healthy, and safe summer—we can't wait to see you in the fall!

Mishkan HaNefesh Dedications

DEDICATE NEW MISHKAN HANEFESH HIGH HOLY DAY PRAYER BOOKS!

We're excited to update our High Holy Day worship with the new prayer books from the Union for Reform Judaism. The books are a valuable tool for innovation in our Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur experience. The language in the books is modern and accessible and all Hebrew prayers are available in transliteration. There are inspired alternative options, a variety of study commentaries throughout the book, a variety of Torah reading options, and some magnificent new prayer alternatives.

Membership Appreciation Night

Family Bingo Night

Our recent Family Bingo Night at the temple was a huge hit! A joyful evening full of laughter, friendly competition, and community connection. Congregants of all ages gathered for an evening filled with laughter, friendly competition, and community spirit. With plenty of prizes, snacks, and lots of “Bingo!” shouts, everyone had a blast. It was a relaxed and festive atmosphere where families bonded, kids had a blast, and everyone shared in the fun. Thank you to all who joined us—it was truly a night to remember, and we can’t wait to do it again!

Second Night Passover Seder

Our Second Night Community Seder was filled with congregants, family, and friends. Everyone enjoyed a lovely evening filled with song, prayer, a skit and a festive meal. Elijah didn't show up, but Moses and Miriam did come to join in the fun!
